DESCENDANTS OF

FOREWORD

One can find information on the descendants of Richard Coker in almost any library in this area of the country. His name, or that of one of his descendants, appears frequently in historical magazines and books of Virginia. The most comprehensive record is a series of articles by James Coker Southall published in the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography in 1896 and 1897. These articles have been invaluable to us. We used them as a starting point for our work. Since their publication, however, additional research has been done, new records have been discovered, and assumptions made then have been proved or disproved. We have searched for information about generations which have been born since then. Many of the living descendants, and a few who have died in the past four years, have been generous with their help.

While there are memoirs, bible records, magazine articles, letters, and other papers in the libraries and in possession of living descendants, there is no one work which deals exclusively with the descendants of Richard Coker. We have attempted to co-ordinate available information, both published and unpublished, and, as a beginning, to compile as many names and dates as we can in this volume. Later, we hope to tell more about some of those listed as well as to acquire information about descendants whom we have not yet reached.

We make no claim that these tables are complete or that they are without error. Our only claim is that this is a start toward the organization of data on the descendants of Richard Coker. We offer this volume with the hope that future investigators will find it useful as a stepping stone to further research, will discount or authenticate the information contained herein, and will help us to collect material for another and more comprehensive volume.

DESCENDANTS OF RICHARD COCKE (c.1600-1665)

1 RICHARD COCKE (c.1600-1665), of "Bremo," Henrico Co., Va. Will dated 4 Oct. 1665. APP79,80;6HSF10;Min.CC;3V405,412;44V136-151
 m/1 Temperance Baley (Bailey, Bayley), b. 1617, daughter of Sisley Jordan

m/2 c.1652, Mary Aston, daughter of Lt.-Col. Walter Aston (Ashton)

We lack positive proof that Temperance Baley was the daughter of Sisley Jordan or that she married Richard Cocke, but there is strong circumstantial evidence. At six, she was living at Jourdan's Journey, Charles City Co., in 1623, and was listed in the muster of William Farrar and Mistress Sisley Jordan, 1624/25. In 1620, 200 acres of land in the Territory of the Great Weyanoke were placed in her name.
 Since there is no record of a guardian, it seems probable that she was the daughter of Sisley Jordan by an earlier marriage. On 10 Oct. 1652, a land patent re-issued to Richard Cocke included 100 acres of the land due by patent to Temperance Baley 20 Sept. 1620. About 1632, according to minutes of the Colonial Council, Richard Cocke married the widow of John Browne and was appointed trustee and guardian of the Browne children. Whether Temperance Baley was the widow Browne is a moot question.
 Boddie (6HSF) thinks that she was, that Richard Cocke inherited 100 acres of land which had been in the name of Temperance Baley, and that a daughter inherited the other half.

The consensus of many who have studied the records is that there were two children by the first wife, Thomas and Richard. Some think that Thomas may have been the first child of Mary Aston. There is more difference of opinion about which is older. Richard inherited the family home and is mentioned in his father's will as "my eldest son," but assignment of certain responsibilities to Thomas, such as the care of his younger brothers and sisters, suggests that he may have been older. The same evidence leads some to think that he was the first child of Mary Aston. We are assigning the identifying number for the first child to Thomas, in conformity with W. Ronald Cocke, III, who has done extensive research on the Cocke family and has data which he collected as well as a vast amount left to him by his father, W.
 Ronald Cocke, Jr. With his permission, we are using the system of numbering used by W. Ronald Cocke, III, and we have tried to make our numbers agree with his. His system seems to us to be superior to any other which we have encountered or can devise. The number assigned to an individual indicates the generation to which he belongs by the number of digits. His individual digit indicates his chronological order in the immediate family. It enables anyone using the information which we have compiled to follow the line of an individual in either direction.

Children of Temperance Baley:

- 11 Thomas Cocke (c.1638-1697)
- 12 Richard Cocke (10 Dec. 1639-20 Nov. 1706) Buried at "Bremo," dates on his tombstone.

Children of Mary Aston:

- 13 Elizabeth Cocke, b. c.1653
- 14 William Cocke (165501693)
- 15 John Cocke (nearly the same age as William and closely associated.)
- 16 Richard Cocke, the Younger
- 17 Edward Cocke 1665/66-1734) James C. Southall (3V405-412) lists Elizabeth as the 6th child and does not list Edward. James P. C. Southall, "Richard Cocke¹ of Bremo and His Children," (44V136-151) says that Elizabeth may have been by first wife.

m/2 Margaret Jones, widow of Peter Jones; daughter of Col. Abraham Wood. (Charles H. Hamlin, Jr., says that she was a step-daughter, that Col. Wood, in his will, refers to her children as "Grandchildren in Law and specifically names her Jones children." Mrs. Jester--APP402-- asks the question, "By use of the phrase grandchildren in law did Abraham Wood wish to emphasize that the Jones children were his heirs in the full meaning of the law, or is the phrase to be accepted in a common interpretation as 'step-children'?"

112 Stephen Cocke (c.1664-1717) 116 Temperance Cocke, b. c.1670

113 John Cocke 117 Agnes Cocke, b. c.1672

James Cocke Southall (4V90) says: In an earlier number "we enumerate John Cocke among the children of Thomas Cocke", instead of William."
(Citing 5VHC) "... but we find from an examination of the will of Thomas Cocke that his fourth son was named William and not John."
Before we knew of this error, we had included John in our list. Deletion of his name would entail changing identification numbers of the four names following John's and of the descendants of these four people. Our first inclination was to change the numbers, but since W. Ronald Cocke, III, uses the number 114 for James, we decided to leave the list as it stands.

William Cocke² married, first, Jane Clarke, daughter of his step-father, Daniel Clarke, and second, Sarah Flower; but each of these statements appears to be erroneous. It has not been ascertained that Daniel Clarke had a daughter named Jane.

"Moreover, it is not true that William Cocke³, son of Thomas, married Sarah Dennis (Va.M.H.& B., IV,90), the fact being that this William Cocke married Sarah Perrin in 1695."

 wife.

 11513 Elizabeth Cox 11517 Edith (Was she Cox or Jordan?)

Will of William Cox (Goochland Co), dated 10 Feb. 1711, pr. June 1712, mentions all of the above children except Edith. Will of Sarah Cox, dated 26 Mar. 1726, pr. 20 Jan. 1747, mentions all seven of them. She appointed Henry Wood (husband of Martha Cox) as executor. The will is in his handwriting. The fact that Martha Cox married at "Bremo" contributed to the confusion of William Cocke and William Cox. Later research proved that they were two different people and that William Cocke had not changed his name to Cox. (See 37V157ff.)

 114115 Sarah Lewis Cocke, b. 5 Feb. 1760
 114116 Ann Cocke
 114117 Susanna Cocke, b. 5 Aug. 1764

We have not been able to establish, beyond doubt, the name of the wife of this James or the names of his children. The Douglas Register gives the name of the wife as Mary Lewis and lists three children: John, Sarah Lewis, and Susanna. Miss Lucy P. Stone, of Roanoke, Va., thinks that James Cocke married Mary Lewis and that he had three children: Susan, James, and John. She thinks that the list which we have used, taken from The Virginia Historical Magazine, Vol. IV, No. 4, pp. 444, 445, includes names of the children of Thomas, brother of James.

In regard to the name of the wife, Albert Kirven Cocke, of the Hollins line, says that Susanna Lewis (Gen. Robert Lewis,¹ John Lewis,² William Lewis,³ Joseph Lewis,⁴) was the wife of this James Cocke.

We shall welcome any information which will help us to clear up this record.
